Impurities of the Blood.

Impurities of the Blood.

In selecting the most appropriste medicine (c) a particular aliment, there may be some difficult and ease one can be found to purify, resultate, at improve the quality of the blood. These Prix possess and Fever these three qualifications in an extraordinary degree. They enable the stomact to digest any ordinary food, increase the secretory powers of the liver, eleane and purify the blocycyle all morbid matter, and throw into the sultation the purest elements for sustaining repairing the frame.

Weakness and Debility. How many persons sufter from debitity with knowing the causes why they are feeble! In mescases the stemach is the aggressor. Holloway Pills have long been samed for regulating a disordered stomach, and restoring its healthy diggerive tone; they are therefore confidently recommended as a never-failing remedy in all cases where the constitution, from any cause, has become impaired or weakened.

Diseases of the Head and Heart. These formidable diseases are, unfortunately of frequent occurence; for the most part they creep on gradually, but may be prevented by proper precautions. Holloway's Pils are the surest perservatives against all derangements of the brain and are the speediest correctors of irregular circulation. If they be taken without delay when thighing in the limbs, drowsiness, ergiddicess comes on, the effect will be marvelous.

Females of all Ages and Classes.

All Disordors allecting the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

Whenever the stomach, liver, or bowels are disordered by high living, climate, over indulgence, undue exertion or other causes, those fine regulating Fills will soon rectify the evil, and speedig bring back energy, strength, and cheerfulness to the frame where previously all was lassitude, gloom, and dejection.

Despondency, Low Spirits.

The misery occasionad by a disordered digestion is unfortunately, felt by most. These famous Pills should be taken in appropriate doses, to adjust the disturbed functions. They dispel headache, billiousness, nausea, lowness of spirits, and alt similar alments. A course of these invaluable purifying Pills never fails in removing the cause of such morbid affections, without subjecting the sufferer to any inconvenience.

Influenza, Diptheria, Bronchitis, Cough and Colds. and Colds, and Colds,

In our changeable climate, few persons escape without colds, sore throats, influenza, dipthera, or bronchitis, for all of which these fanous corrective Pills may be taker with the certainty of effecting a cure While the Pills are expelling all impurities from the body generally. Helloway's Ointment should be well rubbed upon the chest and throat; it will penetrate the skin, reduce inflamation, and restore lasting soundness. THE COLONY AND THE TERRITORY With all the similarity of origin the Englishman and the American, or rather the citizen of the United States, present under certain conditions very striking antitheses. The one man in a newly-formed colony and the other in a newly-formed territory are as widely different in their characteristics as two persons can well be. With the Englishin everything must be done by routine; Jhange (we are not speaking metalically) is generally as much detested by him as it is by the Chinese. The first and last necessity is order. Look after life and property, and let the material prosperity of the country take care of itself, is his great political philosophy. Look at the material prosperity of the country and life and property will take care of themselves is the language of the American. This gives us the key to the non progressive, but well-conducted British colony, and the healthy, vigorous, but disorderly American territory. In the colony's infancy we have generally the people at loggerheads with the Government; the former disposed to grumble at mismanagement, but slow to take remedial measures, the latter arrogant, self-willed and inexperienced. First attempts, therefore, at colonization are generally a failure. The Government, in most cases, guided by the weak and flickering light of a past century, is a blundering Government. Incapable of appreciating the march of events—of seeing the necessity for liberal laws—it wraps itself up in its antique mantle and gapes helplessly at the depopulation of the country. It cannot or will not see that men who are accustomed to the hardships and discomforts of pioneer life will not fritter away their time in a perpetual warfare with the restrictions which Government places in their way Much easier and much more profitable it is to them to leave the country to its sickly fate, than to war with men who have got all the fatuity of the wilfully blind. Hence we find the British colony, no matter how glowing its prospects, laboring and struggling for years under the strangling operation of its Very different is it with the American territory. There so soon as population com-mences to pour in the whole strength and vigor of the people are strained to develop the country's resources. There is but little restriction, and every man rushes with an energy unknown in other countries to the accomplishment of his task. As, however, the automatic character of the English colony, while denuding it of force and vitality, preserves, or tends to preserve, at the sam time the public peace and general order; se the almost unrestrained license of the newlypeopled territory, while giving full vent to the enterprise and vigor of the inhabitants, destroys to a great extent security in life and property: In the gold countries around us we have ample proof of this fact, In the territory of Idaho every stage arrival has been until recently bringing intelligence of highway robbery and murder. Indeed, it would seem that crime was the normal condition of the territory, and not skulking crime afraid to show its face at noonday but bold and audacious crime setting at defiance the very courts erected for its suppression. There was an organised system of marauding that made it in the first place almost impossible to catch the guilty party, and in the second place if caught made it equally difficult to convict him. A reign of terror existed that caused the judge to tremble on the bench and the juryman to shake with fear in the box; for the life of the ons was just as likely to pay the penalty as the life of the other, if any of the sacred gang of murderers had received at the hands of the law his just deserts. The last of these outrages was committed on an important witness named Raymond who testified in cour against some of the band, and was struck own in consequence in cold blood by a ruffian named Clark, The murderer was arrested; but no one doubted that he would as others had done before him, escape the full penalty of the law. Indeed one of the known leaders of the gang, a man named Opdyke, before the body of the murdered man had been removed, stepped boldly forward and said-" That affair grew out of the lawsuit yesterday and there will be many more like it." No one dared arrest Opdyke and he rode off. The public mind was however, wrought up to that excitement which in an American community means something more than words. A Vigilance Committee was formed and the guard-house in which Clark was confined was broken open in the middle of the night, the guards knocked down and pinioned and Clark takes away. The next morning the citizens were awe-struck at seeing Clark's body hanging at the end of three poles a little distance from the town. When Opdyke heard of the circumstance he threatened sev eral of the citizens with summary vengeance; but he calculated without his host, for as he was riding along on one of his murderous missions he himself was taken prisoner b the vigilantes at a place called Syrup Creek, and after a little ceremony, strung up to tree. One of his confederates, a ma named Dixon, was also caught a few miles further down the creek and served in the same manner. On the bodies of each of the men was suspended a card narrating the crime or crimes for which he suffered. One commenced the vigilantes made short work of rascality in Idaho, and to-day we find in the Idaho Statesman the following testimony to their efficiency: " As to the terror tha has reigned for the last two years, it has come

THE BRITISH COLONIST are done, may disperse without danger of duty. There is no alarm in the community and no terror for any one except those who prey upon society and their fellow men. Such is the exact condition of affairs to-day." Such is the ordinary history of the infancy of every mining country in the United States. The law set at defiance for a time by scoundrels of all classes the very courts polluted; but swift and sum-mary retribution following, the channels to ustice made clear and unimpeded, and society placed on a foundation of absolute safety brough the exertions of the populace themselves. It is seldom citizens can with safety ignore the ordinary course of legal tribunals and take the law into their own hands, but we have ample proof by San Francisco, Boise City and other places in the contiguous American territory of citizens rising in their stern majesty, removing effete or corrupt just tice, and like a thunder-storm clearing the atmosphere of surcharged impurities, and then, when the task has been performed, allowing the law to resume its functions, anrestricted by evil influence or iniquitous terors. There is a moral grandeur about this habit of self-reliance that fits a people for any emergency, but our American neighbors would do well, while they avoid ear silly blunders in vainly endeavoring to settle up country, to acquire some of our better characteristics in maintaining the law. If both people would indeed learn from each other's faults-if the English colonist would only discover that he is too patient under ruinous mismanagement, and the American find ou that he is too patient under diabolical crime

-the contiguity of the one community to the other would be productive of benefits that could scarcely be overrated. Both communities, as it is, come right enough in the end. The colonies gradually shake off the incubus of irresponsible Government and govern themselves, and the American terriories gradually get clear of ruffianism, but the very best period in both cases is allowed to slip without any attempt being made to radicate the pressing evils. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE COLUMBIA RIVER ROUTE. - From Gen James McAuliff the Walla Walla Statesman has the following :- The steamer "49" was all ready to take her place on the route to the Big Bend mines, and was expected to start on her first trip on Saturday, the 14th ult. She is pronounced by those who have examined her a fine boat, and fully equal to the requirements of the trade. Capt. Len. White, the purser, and the whole crew were while, the purser, and the whole crew were on the ground, and it is quite certain the boat started at the time stated. Parties who have been hurrying through flour to Colville, paying exorbitant freights, are in bad luck, it being difficult to realise charges. In the Colville market flour is quoted at $14 per 100 pounds, but when sold in large quantities $12 is the ruling rate. The road to Colville is in bad condition, animals frequently mirring down, and the trip attended with many delays. General Mc. was more fortunate than many others, and yet he pronounced it "a many others, and yet he pronounced it "a hard road to travel." At Colville there were three stores doing a healthy business, and at the landing two more mercantile establish-which they shipped immediately to Altola.

They proposed at first to confiscate the steemer, arm her and sail her as a Liberal war steemer, arm her and sail her as a Liberal war steemer, arm her and sail her as a Liberal war steemer, but at length dismissed her on guarantee that she should carry no more contraband of war to the French.

The red Garibaldi shirts of the Firemen considerably added to the gaiety of the scene, which was one of life and animation until the "wee sma" hours? warned the festive throng to their homes and couches. The supper was provided in the French Hotel.

RESCUE OF A WHITE GIRL FROM THE IN-DIANS.—The late expedition under Major Wynkoop to the Indian Territory succeeded rescuing a young lady captive named Amanda Fletcher, fifteen years of age, who father escaped. The family was from Minersville, Henry County, Ill. is. She had been subject to all the cruelties and atrocities incident to a captivity of this degradation, but now enjoys excellent health, and is delighted at her deliverance.—Oregonian.

THE MURDER OF FERD. PATTERSON .- The trial of Thomas Donahue, at Walla Walla, charged with the murder of Ferd. J. Patterson, eccupied the Court for four days. The evidence for the prosecution was, we think, clear on the charge of murder. The jury was out from 4 o'clock, p.m., on Wednesday until Thursday afternoon, but could not agree. They stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. The case will probably be tried again the present term of Court .- Oregonian.

Chief Engineer Drunmond called upon the firemen to give three cheers which the "boys" did with a hearty will.

Three cheers were then proposed by His Excellency for "our Gracious Sovereign the Queen" which was lustily taken up by all present, the band playing part of the National Anthem.

present, the band playing part of the National Anthem.

The department then reformed in the order of procession and marched to the Council Chamber where His Worship the Mayor and the city lathers and oivio functionaries were invited to inspect the engines. This done Mayor Franklin said;

He was proud to have the honor for the first time in his official position of addressing the fire department. He regarded them as his best friends and the most useful society in the city. When a number of respectable gentlemen many of whom were drawn from their business pursuits, risked their oty in the city. When a number of respectable gootlemen many of whom were drawn from their business pursuits, risked their own lives to save the lives and property of others, they were entitled to a full measure of gratitude, and he earnestly hoped to see the department prosper and go on increasing. He congratulated them too on their officers [hear] who would not slumber [laughter] and although some might occasionally arridate it was gratifying to know that they might remain at home and allow a fire to be put out by skilful officers under them, as was the case the other morning. He (the Mayor) was not a fireman, nor was he cut out for one [laughter], but he had been told that that was a most remarkable instance of the skill of the department, who would beer favorable comparison with any others. In some places it was not considered an honor to be a fireman, but here it was both a pride and an honor to be admitted to the department, who conducted their affairs without the slightest animosity or bitter feelings and were an honor to the town. He left elad slightest animosity or bitter feelings and were an honor to the town. He felt glad were an honor to the town. He lelt glad that the Legislature purposed granting certain powers to the Corporation with reference to the department, believing that it would prove beneficial both to the city and to the firemen. Three hearty cheers were given for His Worship at the request of the Chief Engineer, the band striking up "For he's a Jolly Good Fellow," and three for the department at the request of the Mayor.

The firemen were then invited by Mayor Franklin to particle of some refusehearts.

COURT GOSSIP.

"No scandal, I hope, 'gainst Her Majesty." I fancy you will say when you see this heading. No! nothing of the kind; rather a word of commendation, because she is gradually emerging from her shell. Yesterday she positively came up from Windsor, held a court at Buckingham Palace, and slept there afterwards! That is rare news for those who believe "the season" depends upon the movements of Her Majesty,—particularly as thore are to be several other gatherings of the same character, at which presentations of the south of the sudden death of Sir Charles B. Phipps, the keeper of the Privy Parse, which is a most severe loss to Her Majesty, that official having had the confidence of the Prince, and being trusted with the most impertant duties, which he well and worthily performed. He is to be succeeded by Generals Grey and Biddulph, who are to be joint keepers of the privy purse, whilst Sir J. Cowell, formerly tutor to Prince Alfred, succeeds to the Mastership of the Household, and General Biddulph vacates. At present Her Majesty declines to hold any levees herself, and deputes the reception presentation of gentlemen not of the haut noblesse to the self, and deputes the reception procentation of gentlemen not of the haut noblesse to the Prince of Wales. The Court is on the qui Prince of Wales. The Coart is on the quivive respecting the approaching marriage of the Princess Helens, which is fixed for July 9th, and Her Majesty has had the satisfaction of sceing her second son granted £15,000 a year by the nation, his promotion to a captaincy in the Royal Navy, and his appointment as Master of the Trinity House, vacated by Lord Palmerston's death, who succeeded the late Prince Consort. Whenever the younger sciens of the Royal Family come to town they make the most of the opportunity. own they make the most of the opportunity. and generally manage to go to one or other of the theatres in the evening. Like their great grandfather George 111, they are all intensely fond of the drama;—so is the Queen, but she is not likely to give her patronage again by visiting either opera house or theatre.

Positively the long talked of Reform Bill Positively the long talked of Reform Bill is to be introduced on Monday evening in the House of Commons. At the close of last weak Mr. Gladstone gave notice that he should ask for leave on that day to bring in a bill, but declined to say whether he would ask for the first reading. Since that time, having been badgered all round, Earl Russell and his colleagues have made up their minds to "stand the hazard of the dite,"—whether "game" or not remains to be seen. Speculation is very busy about the details of the ation is very busy about the details of the measure. On dit.—There is to be a £6 rating for towns, and a £10 qualification for counties, and that a prominent feature will be a re-distribution of seats, which will be countes, and that a prominent feature will be a re-distribution of seats, which will be generally popular everywhere, except the places that will be disfranchised. The apathy with which this event is received is perfectly ridiculous. Not a ghost of enthusiasm can be raised. The working men say it will not benefit them, and both Whiga and Tories go to work upon no other grounds than that it is time something were done to settle the question. Earl Russell is very ill. The Times gave out the other day that he had offered his resignation but had to contact it the next; and yet the Thunderer was not very far wrong, for scarcely on terms with his colleagues and worried on all hands, there is no doubt this veteran politician—statesman I cannot call him—must be most anxious to "rest and be thankful." The means may be given to deliver the coup degrace on his once more taking the matter of reform in hand, and if it should be so the career of the noble lord is ended. Never more will he be Minister of State. That we have got a much more Radical House of have got a much more Radical House of mons than the last is quite evident, but Commons that the last is quite evident, but parties are so much split up in every direction that if ever a Reform Bill should be dragged through there the Pers will make short work of it, and it will not rouse the country as it was roused two and thirty manner in which the proposition wholly to abolish the impost was received. In a very

Wednesday the second leading of a total on the debate by speaking both for and other side, and then he completed his pretty little game by voting for the measure. The general impression abroad is that all parties will agree to a compromise. Even Mr. Bright intimated that in his opinion this was the only way by which a settlement of the question could be met. If that be done, there may be a truce between Ohurchmen and Dissenters, the power of whom could they but be wise enough to see it could gain they but be wise enough to see it could gain othing but advantage from concession.

FENIANISM. Stephens is not yet caught nor is this silly Stephens is not yet caught nor is this silly plot yet exploided. It is however in a fair way of being so, although not a few expect there will be an uprising somewhere or other on St. Patrick's Day, the 17th instant. One thing is most satisfactorily proved, that the army and police are found to be loyal to the core. Only a few dissolute soldiers have been mixed up in the affair more from drink then dislocate, which and to man in the than disloyalty, whilst not a man in the police force has been false to his leafty. Great threatenings come over from America as to what is to be and shall be done, but nothing will come of it. The "snake is so severely scotched" that it will not form again easily.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE. The Government measure to stamp out this disease, although it presses severely in some instances, is already beginning to show its effect in a diminution of cases. The its effect in a diminution of cases. The Government having refused to appoint a day of fasting and humilation to appease the Almighty's vengeanco—to which a certain class of religionists wholly attribute this visitation—the Bishops have taken up the cudgels and have fixed different days in their respective dioceses, on which the clergy will have an opportunity of talking a great deal of nonsense to their heart's content, and making themselves supremely ridiculous. of nonsense to their heart's content, and making themselves supremoly ridiculous. The Government judged very rightly that the appointment of such a day would only incite drunkenness and profonity, whilst it would deprive the working classes of a day's wages, which those persons can very ill afford. Whoever likes to obey the Bishops' belies my do so, and no harm will come of it. The adopting of a more supera ascetism. it. The adoption of a more severe ascetism in one day in the middle of Lent if it does no good will not do any mischief, and if i pleases a few, so let it be. But there is an old fable, of which such people remind the Heaven for help." Had proper means been adopted at the proper time the Rinderpest, leng'ere this, would have been a thing of the past.

DOCTOR WHEWELL. Wherever science has made its wuy the ame of Dr. Whewell, the late Master of name of Dr. Whowell, the late Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, cannot fail to be known and respected. On this day fortnight this eminent gentleman, on returning from a ride, was flung from the borse; and, although he recovered his senses, never rallied from the effect of the shock. There is no doubt that Dr. Whowell was Cambridge's brightest ornament. In position, as in mental power, he towered above every one clae in that University, as he also did in stature. Tall and massive in form he was a remarkable man to look upon, and was the No News—The Eastern line being down we have no later news to present to our readers.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT-Stomach HOLLOWAY'S I'ILLS AND UINTMENT—Stomacn and Kidneys. Between these two organs there exists a close and intimate relation which is demonstrated by the waating which occurs in all diseases afflicting the kidneys. The disordered stomach is often the first index of renal irregularity. Holloway's remedies used at that juncture would cut short many a serious and fatal They act with wonderful efficac attack. They act with wonderful efficacy on overy organ of secretion, but especially do they regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys, in restoring their healthy functions, and casting out any obstructions or impurities. It is necessary for the ointment to be well rubbed into the small of the back twice daily, when it is absorbed and greatly augments the purifying and salutary influence of the Pills.

Holloway's Ointmant.—Wounds, Scalds, Burns, and Irritating Sores.—The peculiarly mild cothing, anti-inflammatory power exerted by this Ointment strongly recommends its use to all persons who have charge of children. Accidents will occur in the nursery in spite of the greatest caution and utmost vigilance. The scratch, the burn, or the scald, treated early with this Ointment, assumes no anzry aspect, and nover long tortues the little sufferer, whose very cry excite each bystander's compassion and pierces the perents heart. Every nurse should consider this invaluable Ointment an essential to a well appointed nursery. The Ointment is applicable to any ore, whatever its character. It conducts to health as sure as the compass points to the north. Holloway's OINTMENT,-Wounds, Scalds

HOLLOWAY'S CONTMENT AND PILLS-Palpita HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS—Palpitation, Shoriness of Breath, Dropsy.—This last anned disease is often preceded by irregular action of the heart, and difficult respiration which symptoms are always severe, and ever go from bad to worse, unless proper means of cure be resorted to. In Holloway's unrivalled Ointment and Pills' the dropsical patient will ever find succour; the present relief derived from the use of these remedies is marvellously quick, and perseverance in the steady application of this noble Ointment invariably results in a lasting and satisatory cure. The two medicines act with succoure, the two medicines act with such energy on the circulation and absorbent system, that the dropsical fluid vanishes, and the sufferer finds all the oppressive symptoms daily decline, till natural health returns. HOLLOWAY' OINTMENT AND PILLS .- Fistu liblowary Ontmissia and Strictures, are speedily relieved and ultimately removed by applying this Ontment after fomentation with warm water. Persons suffering from these scourges of the human frame should arrest their progress at once, (or it is both insidious and rapid. Fistulas, the human Hame should always the human Hame should be none, for it is both insidious and rapid. Fistulas, if long allowed to go on unchecked, not only weaken the nervous system, but destroy life. The soner these inestimable remedies are used the more certain is success; yet none should despit, hopeless cases have often yielded, and the sufferer has been saved a painful death. In exceptations, a few applications of this healing Ointment effect a cure, while the Pills, conjointly used, are especially beneficial in relaxing and removing strictures, whatever their situation or duration. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS, a certain remedy for diseases of the skin-Ringworm remedy for diseases of the skin—Ringworm, scurry, scofula, or king's evil, sore heads, and the most inveterate skin diseases to which the human race is subject, cannot be treated with a more safe and speedy remedy than Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which act so peculiarly on the constitution, and so purify the blood that those diseases are eradicated from the system, and a lasting cure is obtained. They are equally efficacious in the cure of tumours, burns, scalids, glandular swellings, ulcerous wounds, rheumatism, contracted and stiffjoints. These medicines operate mildly and surely. The cure effected by them is not temporary or apparent only, but complete and permanent. Corner of Government and Bastion star Victoria

These medicaments are composed of rare balsams, without the admixture of a grain of mercury or any injurious substance. They are peculiarly mild and gentle in their action, and are as safe as they are efficacious.

Holloway's Pills and Cintment.-Influ-Holloway's Pills and Cintment.—Influence, Colds.—In diseases of the throat and chest, a prevalent in this country, nothing so speedily relieves or so certainly cures as these inestimable remedies. These disorders are too often neglected at the commencement; or are injudiciously treated, resulting in either case, in disastrous consequences. Whatever the condition of the patient, Holloway's medicines will restore, if recovery be possible; they will retard the alarming symptoms till the blood is purified and Nature consummates the cure, gradually restoring strength and vital nervous power. By persevering in the use of Holloway's preparations, tone is conferred on the stomach and frame generally; the fluids are regenerated, morbific matter is expelled, and a happy revolution occurs throughout the system. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS-These potent remedies constitute a materia medica in themselves, for there is no internal or external themselves, for there is no l'ternal or external disorder cont. collable by med., inter for which the one or the other of them is not a positive remedy returned, tumers, scotolla, scurvy, cancer, asthma, rheumatism, gout, and dropsy entirely subside and disappear under the action of thece joint medicines; and in cases of indigestion, sick headache, bile, liver complaints, debility, and other disorders originating in the internal organs, other disorders originating in the internal organs, the Pills produce the most astouishing results im-aginable. The student of Nature knows how sim-ple are her ways; if one preparation can throw outail the impurities of the blood, disease is con-quered and art is triumphant, because it adopted the simplicity of Nature.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills—Acute Rheumatism. In all severe pains in the joints and muscles, after due fomentation with hot water, the soothing action of this Ointment is most remarkable; it seems at once to lessen inflammation, ease pain, reduce the swelling, restore the 'circulation, and expel the disease. In these complaints, indeed, Holloway's Ointment and Pills are an infallible specific. The Ointment should be rubbed as near the part in pain as he patient can bear; it is absorbed and directly conveyed to the diseased textures, when, acting on nerve vessels, and guiders, it will arrest disease to a vessels, and guiders, it will arrest disease to a vessels, and guiders of the Pills have the happies, effect in assisting the Ointment. Hollowars Fills.—General debility, low spirits, and nervous irritation, are the consequences of dyspepsia or indigestion. The Pilis soon give tone to the stomach, renovate the digestive powers, purify the blood, and give strength to the whole system. Sluggishness of the body and depression of the mind are succeeded by a cheerful activity of the physical and mental functions. Indigestion is the parent of so many evils, and is so common, so universal a complaint, that it is a great biesing that such a remedy as this invaluable medicine should have been discovered. No. one. need long suffer from indigestion with these Pilis at nand.
